

The World YWCA, WWSF & NGO CSW Geneva are pleased to invite you to a side event on
'The Universal Application of CEDAW'

Date: 15 October 2012
Venue: CONGO Board Room, Avenue de la Paix 11, 1202 Geneva,
Time: 10.00 - 12.30

Women's organisations continue to play a critical role in raising awareness of CEDAW, supporting programmes that bring CEDAW to life in communities around the globe, and as well as advancing the universal application of this treaty to ensure that women fully enjoy their human rights. The World YWCA, WWSF and NGO CSW Geneva are therefore hosting a public dialogue on the universal application of CEDAW, during the 53rd session of CEDAW and in celebration of the International Rural Women's day.

Guest Speakers:

Nyaradzayi Gumbonzvanda – President, NGO CSW Geneva
Pia Oberoi- Migration Advisor, Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights
CEDAW Committee Expert (TBC)
Ping Lee – Global Ambassador, World YWCA and General Secretary, YWCA of Taiwan
Elly Pradervand – CEO and Founder, WWSF
Moderator: Marie-Claude Julsaint – Global Programme Manager VAW, World YWCA
