

NGO-CSW Geneva
Initiative on Reproductive Rights

Reproductive Health and Rights: Exploring Gaps and New Paths Interactive Dialogue

Monday, 2 July 2012

13 :00 to 15 :00

Room XXIV

United Nations, Geneva

Goals:

- To identify gaps and solutions from different perspectives
- To strengthen advocacy for the accelerated implementation of the ICPD Plan of Action

Chair and introduction

Nyaradzayi Gumbonzvanda: President, NGO Committee on the Status of Women, Geneva

Rapporteur

Joyce Jett, Medical Care Development International

Panel

- Where do we stand with Reproductive Rights and the ICPD review?
Alanna Armitage, Director, UNFPA Office, Geneva
- Rio+20 and Reproductive Rights
Beatriz Schultess, Senior Associate, Conference of NGOs with Consultative Status to the UN , CoNGO
- Family Planning and Reproductive Health in the Developing World
Dr. Karim Abawi, Gynaecologist, Expert in Reproductive Health and Training Programmes
- Defining Reproductive Rights - An Evolution
Prof. Krishna Ahoojapatel , Women and Development, former President of NGO-CSW
- Innovation and Technology: Tools to Protect Reproductive Health and Rights
Dr. Astrid Stuckelberger, University of Geneva Public Health School, Vice-President NGO-CSW

Interactive Dialogue How to accelerate the Process and Outcome

Focus: The “War on Women”, a case study from the USA

Sandwiches will be served in front of room XXIV prior to the panel