

Key Recommendations that came out of the meeting:

1. There are issues related to the universal application of CEDAW and of human rights in general that came up and we will continue to consult with the OHCHR, specifically with the Research and Right to Development Division (Pia Oberoi) and the Women's Human Rights and Gender Section (Isha Dyfan)
2. We need to continue to name the issues
3. There is an important need for Human Rights Education
4. This side event was the beginning of a series of side events on the universal application of human rights
5. The NGO CSW Geneva will explore the possibility of holding a side event on the universal application of human rights and VAW at the CSW meeting in New York
